Bud Fisher's Cartoon Comedians,

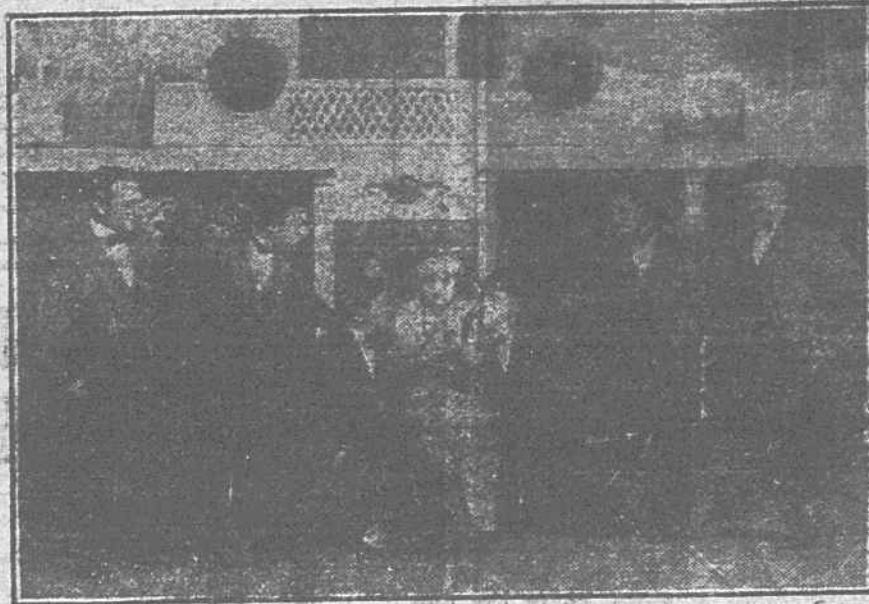

MUTT and JEFF
In Panama

And their company of forty singers, dancers and comedians.

WARNING—AVOID SURE DISAPPOINTMENT—SECURE SEATS NOW.

THE THEATERS

The fact that more than a thousand newspapers in the United States and Canada have been running the Fisher cartoons daily and Sunday for the last two years without the least sign of becoming tiresome to their readers, has made "Mutt and Jeff" the most remarkable play in theatrical history and to offer a second edition to equal in merit that of the original was "some job," but Gus Hill, who is the dean of cartoon play producers, has once more made good and "Mutt and Jeff in Panama" will prove one of the best of the season. In fact it is a sensational melodramatic story, fitted with musical comedy harness, and an atmosphere of "whirlly-girly" polka, travesty and a little extravaganza to give zest.

Scene from "Mutt and Jeff in Panama."

Margarita Fisher and Harry Pollard appearing in "American Beauty" motion pictures on the Mutual Program are the same "Fisher and Pollard" who appeared in vaudeville in the popular sketch "When Hearts are Trumps."

Thomas Barry, a vaudeville author, has written a play called "Anne of Harlem." He is also dramatizing the "Silk Hat Harry" cartoons.

After experience in Grand opera, Marie McFarland says that in spite of the large salaries accorded to "singers," there is "little real money left after the expenses incidental to their position are met."

Annie Russell is to have a "permanent company" at the Little theater in Philadelphia, under the management of Lawrence J. Anhalt. The company will be financed and artistically directed by Miss Russell herself.

Lew Fields and Joe Weber will once more appear in the same musical comedy. The present plan being that they make an all-summer run in New York, after which Fields will retire from the musical comedy field to devote his professional life to straight comedy.

Bernice Merzhan, who will be seen in the part of prima donna in Henry W. Savage's latest Viennese operetta, "Maid of Athens," is comparatively new to the comic opera world, but as a concert and grand opera singer she has made an enviable record during the last three years.

Mabel Tallafiero, the heroine of Selig's "Cinderella," and her husband, Tom Carrigan, associated with many Selig picture plays, are both playing in Chicago now. Miss Tallafiero is playing with her sister, Edith, at the Powers, in the satirical comedy, "Young Wisdom," while Mr. Carrigan is playing with Edith Wynne Matthison in "The Deadlock" at the Howard.

Henry W. Savage now has two standard attractions in New York—"Sari" and "Along Came Ruth," and as these represent the total of his new productions for this season, thus far, he averages of producing success for the year may be reckoned as one hundred percentum. Monday, March 16, at the New Amsterdam theater, Mr. Savage will make his third new offering to wit, "Maid of Athens," a romantic operetta adapted for America by Carolyn Wells.

A radical change is made this season in the personnel of Richards and Pringle's negro minstrel, who appear at the Robinson Grand Friday night, March 13. Every song, joke, act and feature being entirely new and every specialty and vaudeville performer being direct from New York

City, and of the highest grade of the amusement profession.

After being disappointed several times owing to mistakes in shipping orders, the Odeon theater is at last showing today that much talked about play, "The Daughter of the Underworld." Three other splendid picture plays are also being shown in addition to the vaudeville program.

The fifth photoplay in the remarkable series of "The Adventures of Kathlyn," entitled "A Colonel in Chains," will be shown tomorrow at the Odeon theater. The following is an outline of the story:

The beautiful Kathlyn incarcerated with her father, Col. Hare, sees little hope in prospect for escaping from the tightening coil of the snake-like villainous Umballah, who has sworn vengeance, smarting under the bold blows of the gallant American and retreated to rally his minions for the public flogging of the colonel and the degradation of his daughter. BOWLING NEWS

Gondoliers Win Two.
The Gondolier duck pin team of the city league won two out of the three games played with the strong Donohue and Johnson team of the Gore Alleys Tuesday evening.

The contest was one of the interesting and most exciting that has been rolled for several weeks. The Donohue and Johnson team was in first place and the Gondoliers in fourth, and both teams were evenly matched. The first game was close until the eighth frame when three marks in a row by the Gondoliers gave them a lead which won the game.

In the second contest it looked like nothing but a rout for the Gondoliers, as they were leading by 32 pins at the end of the sixth frame, but bad rolling on the part of the clothiers made the game an even bet in the ninth frame. Marks by Barnett and Johnson and

RESINOL RELIEVED ITCHING AT ONCE

And Completely Cured Skin Humor.

Nov. 1, 1912—"At first little red spots were seen on my arms and body, which I noticed were getting larger every day. They itched me so much that I scratched myself until I bled. There were times when I stood up all night and scratched, which time I used—, which seemed to do me no good whatever. Then, finally, I thought of trying Resinol Soap and Resinol Ointment. As soon as I applied Resinol Ointment I felt much relief. After using it a few times, I noticed the sore spots slowly fading away, and in about a month I was cured." (Signed) Adolph Schoen, 742 Shepherd Ave., Brooklyn, N. Y.

The soothing, healing balsams in Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap, penetrate every tiny pore of the skin, clearing it of all impurities, driving away eczema, rashes, ringworm, psoriasis, and other eruptions, and making pimples and blackheads impossible. Prescribed by physicians for eighteen years. For free samples write to Dept. 16-M, Resinol, Baltimore, Md. Every druggist sells Resinol Ointment (in opal jars, 50c and $1.00) and Resinol Soap (25c per cake).
